One day workshop on "Orchids of North-East India- its importance and conservation"

Date: 6th April, 2023

In the kaleidoscopic realm of orchids, an entrepreneur's success pivots upon a profound understanding of the diverse varieties and their distinctive characteristics. Orchids, with their myriad shapes, colors, and fragrances, present a fascinating tapestry for cultivation and one of the valuable species both economically and ornamentally. Orchid business, which combines beauty and business in the most enchanting way possible in understanding the orchid world and navigating legal requirements to cultivating techniques and creating effective marketing strategies. Therefore a one-day state level workshop was organized by the Department of Botany on the topic "Orchids of N.E. India Importance and Conservation" on 6th April, 2023". On this occasion Dr. Farishta Yasmin, Associate Professor, Department of Botany, Nagaon College was invited as a resource person to deliver a lecture on the above topic. Dr. Yashmin spoke vividly on the Orchid entrepreneurship. The workshop was inaugurated by the Principal of the college with a welcome speech by Mrs. Ami Devi, Head of the Department. Followed by lighting the lamp session by all the dignitaries present in the Workshop, the biodata of the invited resource person was read by Dr. Jayanta Borkakoti, Assistant Professor of the Department. Followed by this, the Resource person gave a wonderful lecture on the identification of orchids in North-East India, Orchid conservation, their ecological importance and on the immense scope of Orchid entrepreneurship. More than 70 students were present during the Workshop.

The Workshop proved to be a fruitful one as it ignited the mindset of students towards exploring the rich diversity of Orchids in North-east India for entrepreneurship.
